8. (Unclassified - ELS) LIAISON Called Adam Dawson, in the office of Representative Michael T. Blouin (D., Iowa), in response to his request and told him our reports showed the Peoples Korea magazine, published in Japan, was a regular outlet for North Korean viewpoint and was thought to be supported by North Korea. He thanked us.

✓ 9. (Unclassified - ELS) BRIEFING Called Peter Kyros, Counsel to the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Subcommittee on Merchant Marine, and asked him about his direct request to have [] NFAC/STAT, come down for a talk. Kyros said his staff is studying the provisions of H. R. 9998, which he called the control carrier Bill, and he wanted [] to brief him informally and on an unclassified basis on certain aspects of the Soviet merchant marine liner trade. I told him that we could not provide help in drafting legislation nor could we provide an Agency viewpoint on legislation in this way and he assured me that was not his intent. I told STAT him that if it was just information he wanted, I was sure we could accommodate him. He seemed pleased. I will pass this to [] NFAC/CSS, and []

10. (Unclassified - SF) LIAISON Sent by courier to Thomas K. Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, 25 sets of Volumes I and II for November 1977 entitled "Guides to Law of Central Intelligence Agency" to be distributed to Committee Members and staffers.

11. (Unclassified - JMD) LIAISON Received a call from Lucy Fusco, secretary to Senator Clifford Case (R., N.J.), in response to my call on 6 January, who said she talked with Senator Case Friday night and the Senator said he appreciated Ambassador Carlucci's offer of a courtesy call but it was not really necessary, that the Ambassador has his support. She said the Senator wanted to make it clear, however, that if the Ambassador had any problems he wanted to discuss with the Senator, then to please call back and set an appointment. I told Ms. Fusco we would pass this to Ambassador Carlucci and be back in touch with her.

12. (Unclassified - JMD) LIAISON Called Marcie Lynch, appointment secretary to Senator James Pearson (R., Kan.), to arrange a courtesy call visit between the Senator and Ambassador Carlucci. Ms. Lynch said she is not sure which days the Senator will be in, but she will call me as soon as she can set a date.
